RONALD W. JARRETT

Criminal History

RONALD WILLIAM JARRETT, also known as RONALD JARRETT, RONNIE JARETT, "R.J.", RONALD W. JARETT, RONALD KRAKOWSKI, ANTHONY FURZATO, ANTHONY FURATZO. JARRETT was born July 13, 1944, at Chicago, Illinois. JARRETT's heritage is pure "Chicago southside". JARRETT was born and raised in the 11th Ward section of Chicago, commonly referred to as "The Patch" area due to the multi-national composition of the neighborhood. The 11th Ward is coincidental with the 9th District, Chicago Police Department (the Deering District, headquartered at 3501 South Lowe Avenue).

JARRETT owes his success as a neighborhood burglar and thief due to his close association with influential members of the Democratic machine which controls Chicago. For example, JARRETT maintains a position as an employee with the Department of Streets and Sanitation, as does a multitude of his hoodlum associates. Even during his incarceration of fifteen months for violation of 7-18, Section 659 (Theft From Interstate Shipment), JARRETT was maintained on the rolls as a city employee.

[redacted] was a neighborhood character and a bit of a small-time hood. [redacted] also held "clout"

b6

with the city through ex-Mayor EDWARD KELLY. When the McCormick Exposition Center was opened, [redacted] was one of the individuals who was utilized to breach the gap between IBT number 705 and the city. [redacted] was also a "ward heeler" who could be counted on to get out the vote and to arrange for heavy contributions.

JARRETT has an extensive arrest record, having been charged on at least 42 separate occasions and convicted on 10 separate incidents. It should be noted that JARRETT had previously been "picked up for questioning" hundreds of times and, at one time, was instructed to make roll call at the 9th District so that rookie officers would be able to identify him on sight. One interesting story has it that JARRETT used to be introduced at roll call as "Twenty percent of Chicago's crime, forty percent of the neighborhood's clout, and one hundred percent of trouble after midnight".

JARRETT, among other convictions, has fallen on robbery, burglary, larceny, stolen property, and assault charges. Federally, JARRETT has been the subject of TFIS investigations (which resulted in one conviction), AFO (one conviction) and, recently IGB (no conviction).

RONALD JARRETT is a professional burglar and specializes in large industrial scores, especially large grocery markets. Among the trade, JARRETT is known as a "roof burglar", employing roof entrances to effect his crimes. JARRETT always operates with a gang, the members being either from the neighborhood or still residing in "The Patch". Among those he trusts are [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted], PHILLIP BONOMO (uncle, DOB June 6, 1914),
[redacted]
[redacted], LOUIS CARMEL ESPOSITO
(DOB October 7, 1937), [redacted] FRANK J.
CALABRESE (FBI number 702 188 B), [redacted]

[redacted] The foregoing are but a few of the individuals with whom JARRETT has been known to "jump", i.e. commit burglaries, etc.

It has been inferred that JARRETT owed allegiance to the late JAMES "THE BUMBER" CATURA and ANGELO LA PIETRA. Furthermore, JARRETT has stated that he is part of the "26th street crowd", usually noted for its incohesiveness and dissimilarity of purpose. JARRETT, if he is in fact working under the auspices of the Chicago family, has been employed as an "enforcer" for "juice loans" incurred through gambling. It is alleged that JARRETT has worked for LEONARD YARAS as a "wire room" operator. While so employed, JARRETT was referred to as the "Little Guy". It was further alleged that JARRETT was attempting, on his own initiative, to replace JAMES CATURA as the shining light on 31st Street.

b6

In a unique sort of way, JARRETT is both a leader and a participant in major theft crews. If the score is JARRETT's, i.e., JARRETT brings the target to his crew, he is the designated boss and subsequently calls the shots. However, if a substantial burglary is proposed wherein JARRETT would merely be another member, then JARRETT readily assumes the role of the follower.

JARRETT is given to physical violence, having been arrested on several occasions in possession of a weapon. Additionally, JARRETT is a brawler and would not hesitate to assault anyone given any type of provocation. JARRETT is physically able to inflict bodily harm on the unsuspecting, having been involved in countless barroom fights.

As of January, 1979, JARRETT has concentrated his efforts in the area of gambling and setting up supermarket burglaries. Although aspirations postured by JARRETT would allude to his "place in the sun" to be imminent, no concrete information has been received that would definitely point to JARRETT's initiation into the LCN inner circle.
